Then incredible seaside to the extreme south of Sardinia, below the 39th parallel.

End of stage in a beautiful hotel facing the lagoon.

Tuesday October 8 – 2nd stage

Wild coast of Capo Spartivento, crossing the natural park of Monte Arcosu and its magnificent forest, diving in Cagliari. Stop for lunch at the top of the citadel dating from the Middle Ages, overlooking the ramparts. Then a magnificent climb through the mountainous region of Monte dei Setti Fratelli, its granite peaks, its cork oak and holm oak woods, via the superb SS125, winding as you wish.

Wednesday October 9 – 3rd stage

Superb and technical loop. Crossing villages with houses decorated with picturesque political frescoes. Lunch by the sea in an isolated and picturesque place, after a dizzying descent, at Punta Pedralunga, at the bottom of a canyon. We continue with the “Gran Canyon” of Gola Su Gorropu and its rocky chaos.

Thursday October 10 – 4th stage

Crossing a beautiful and wild region. Bivouac lunch with local products. Then arrival at Porto Cervo, a very exclusive seaside village, created by the Aga Khan in 1962, after he bought 30 km of granite coastline bordered by incredibly clear water, to build the dream resort of all the wealthy people on the planet, on what is now called the Costa Esmeralda.

Friday October 11 – 5th stage

Less wild coasts first.

Beachside lunch.

Then coasts, mountains, and suddenly a small, breathtaking road on the heights of the cliff overlooking the sea by 400 m, and at the bottom a completely virgin coast. We find Santa Margarita di Pula.
